By signing above, you authorize Federal Employees of Chippewa County Credit Union to extend your loan payment by one month. Interest will continue to accrue throughout the deferred period and the term of your loan will be extended. You may skip only one payment per loan. All other provisions of the original note except those changed by this agreement do remain in full force and effect. Loans excluded from the Skip-a-Payment program are Mortgages, Vacant Land, Visa Credit Cards, Revolving and Overdraft Lines of Credits. Loans must meet current loan criteria to qualify for an extension and all loan extensions will be subject to approval. This form must be returned prior to your loan due date. Loans that are past due will not be extended. If your loan is paid via payroll deduction, the amount normally applied to your loan will be deposited to your share account.
